

The Ascension of the Lord

All you peoples, clap your hands,
 shout to God
 with cries of gladness,
 For the Lord,
 the Most High,
 the awesome,
 is the great king
 over all the earth...
 God mounts his throne
 amid shouts of joy;
 the Lord,
 amid trumpet blasts.
 Sing praise to God,
 sing praise;
 sin praise to our king,
 sing praise.
 For king of all the earth is God;
 sing hymns of praise.
 God reigns over all the nations,
 God sits upon his holy throne.
 The princes of the peoples
 are gathered together
 with the people
 of the God of Abraham.
 For God's are the guardians
 of the earth;
 he is supreme.

How Do We Train Kids?

Many people think that because they give their kids a good education, that they've done a good job in raising their kids. And so we have many kids who are very well educated but are often untrained. What do I mean?

Training kids is something like the substratum of education. It is the formation of good character and the development of good habits (which is another name for virtues) and self discipline which is the basis of success in life. After all, some subjects we don't like but we need them anyway. Some jobs will be unpleasant but we have to do them anyway. Some relationships are painful but we need to stay with it. Without training for the development of good character we might be deceiving ourselves that the kids are ready for the real world. They might arrive at adulthood as handsome, intelligent, but utterly untrained and un-self disciplined young people unable to transcend beyond their own wants and make a lasting commitment in a job or relationship.

Training of kids begins long before the age of reason. We train them not to talk at certain times. We train them to never tell lies. We train them to stand tall and not to slouch. We train them to hang their clothes up and make their bed every day. We train them to be able to engage adults in conversation and look them in the eyes. We train them to be obedient, not because they agree with us, but because we are the authority. In other words "Because I'm the dad..." We treat defiance as the most serious breach of family rules. We train them in modesty. We train them in gracefulness and charm. We train them to be able to delay gratification. It begins with "do your homework first, and then you can play," or "first eat your supper, then you can have desert." It leads up to "first you have to be married..." and of course a thousand other sacrifices that help us grow as Christians and as citizens.

These are just a few of the ways that we must underpin education with good character formation for the long term benefit of the kids.

Summer Dress for Mass

What is appropriate for Mass during summer?

Appropriate dress should reflect three things:

- Our RESPECT for Jesus' Real Presence in the Eucharist;
- Our RESPECT for God's house; and
- Our RESPECT for our brothers and sisters in the Body of Christ.

With this in mind, a guideline for men, women, youth and children would be no shorts or short skirts and no low cut tops or tight attire. *When in doubt, it is always best to choose in the favor of modesty.

Pro-Life Corner

Lifenews.com: Gov. Mark Dayton has vetoed legislation that would have prevented the cloning of human embryos in Minnesota, and the funding of such experiments. Both pro-life measures were strongly supported by Minnesota Citizens Concerned for Life, the statewide pro-life group. "MCCL was hopeful that Gov. Dayton would act to ban the senseless cloning of human beings," the organization's director Scott Fischbach said. Dayton's vetoes today mean that the cloning of human embryos (but not their destruction) remains legal in Minnesota. Opponents of the ban, primarily the University of Minnesota, claimed that producing a human organism by cloning and then destroying it after five to 10 days, is not cloning. However, the National Institutes of Health defines cloning as the process of combining an enucleated egg (oocyte) with a somatic (i.e. body) cell nucleus to make an embryo. Whether the cloned embryo is destroyed or allowed to live does not change the definition of cloning.
